EVENTS AT GRANITE.

The Question of a Site for the Jail Finally Settled.

Special to the Standard.

GRANITE, June 27.—The Granite jail, about which so much has been said and written by persons who know nothing whatever about the matter, has been finally and satisfactorily settled. Long ago the county commissioners signified their willingness to pay a reasonable amount to build a new jail, but Granite is so situated, built as it is on mining claims, where the necessary ground must be leased and cannot be bought and title secured. The county commissioners very properly refused to build a jail on the ground upon which neither a title or lease had been procured and no citizen of Granite has until today taken sufficient interest in the matter to even suggest a spot that was suitable. James Cleary, the hotel keeper, to-day made arrangements with Commissioner McDonald to select the ground, secure the best title obtainable and build a jail, the county paying therefor, and this settles the jail business.

Gus Myer sold to-day his saloon building and lot on Main street. Consideration, $16,000.
